

Dominique P. LAMOUREUX

Dominique Lamoureux is Vice President, Ethics and Corporate Responsibility for Thales, a global organisation which plays a key role in keeping the public safe and secure, guarding vital infrastructure and protecting national security interests in all its markets - aerospace, ground transportation, defence and security.

He defines and monitors, in particular, the Company's strict policy for compliance with international trade regulations, and more globally, for the development of a comprehensive company-wide ethics policy. He is General Secretary of the Corporate Ethics Committee and represents Thales at the UN's Global Compact.

Dominique Lamoureux is deeply involved in various business organisations.

As such, he chairs the Cercle d'Ethique des Affaires, whose mission is to promote ethics and compliance within companies' management and governance.

Regarding the prevention of corruption, he is a member of the "Corporate Responsibility & Anti-Corruption" committee of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) and chairs the French Chapter.

He is also a member of the International Executive Committee of the MEDEF (Mouvement des Entreprises de France), and of the Business and Industry Advisory Committee to the OCDE (BIAC). He chairs the Ethics and Corporate Responsibility Working Group of the GIFAS (Groupement des Industries Françaises Aéronautiques et Spatiales) and is Vice-Chair of IFBEC (International Forum on Business Ethical Conduct).

He also chairs the Business Intelligence Committee of the MEDEF (Mouvement des Entreprises de France)

Dominique Lamoureux is a graduate of Political and Economic Sciences (Science-Po Paris). Among various positions within Thales, he was General Secretary for Thales International (1994 to 2005).

He is an Officer of the French Legion of Honour and an Officer of the National Order of the Merit.
